

Pediatric Grand Rounds

Department of Pediatrics, Eastern Virginia Medical School
Sponsored by
Office of Continuing Medical Education
Eastern Virginia Medical School

Target Audience: Pediatricians and interested healthcare professionals including medical residents and students

All conferences are held 8:00 – 9:00 AM in the Brickhouse Auditorium

- September 3, 2009 “Iron Metabolism and Management of Iron Overload”
Samir Ballas, MD
Professor of Medicine & Pediatrics, Thomas Jefferson University
- Objectives: Review the metabolism of iron and how to manage iron overload.
General Competencies: Medical knowledge and patient care.
- September 10, 2009 “Rock, Paper, Scissors? Exploring New Techniques To Resolve Old Conflicts”
John B. Molidor, PhD
Professor and Assistant Dean, Michigan State University College of Human Medicine
- Objectives: Identify how your preferred style and mode of dealing with conflict affects your behavior in conflict situations, describe how the environment influences the behavior of your co-workers and others around you, and practice new skills in resolving conflicts.
General Competencies: Interpersonal and communication skills
- September 17, 2009 “Infant Mortality”
Karen Remley, MD, MBA, FAAP
Commissioner of Health, Virginia Department of Health
- Objectives: Review the current infant mortality in Virginia and suggest solutions for improvement.
General Competencies: Medical knowledge and systems-based practice
- September 24, 2009 “Healthcare Reform: Are we Ready for an Integrated Delivery System?”
Neri M. Cohen, MD, PhD
Chief, Division of Thoracic Surgery, Greater Baltimore Medical Center
- Objectives: Review healthcare in other developed countries around the world, compare those to the current healthcare in the US, and offer solutions for change in our health care system.
General Competencies: Medical knowledge and systems-based practice

ACCREDITATION

Eastern Virginia Medical School is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

CREDIT DESIGNATION

Eastern Virginia Medical School designates this educational activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.