

Category F Physical Requirements
• Frequent lifting/carrying objects weighing up to 50 lbs
• Occasional lifting/carrying objects greater than 50 lbs with assistance
• Frequent sitting, standing, walking, reaching and repetitive movement
• Frequent use of hearing, speech, and vision required to share information through oral and sight communication
• Frequent bending, stooping , squatting, kneeling, twisting, pushing, pulling, sorting, balancing/holding objects and reaching above shoulder/floor to waist
• May require short bursts of running
• Occasional data entry, computer/keyboard use
• Simple/light grasping, firm/strong grasping, and fine dexterity
• Visual acuity including color, depth perception, and field of vision (normal or corrected)
• Potential for exposure to patient (or patient area) contact
• Potential for exposure to chemicals and radiation
• Potential for exposure to environmental/atmospheric conditions
• May be exposed to various weather conditions, excessive noise, and dust
• May have to work at heights
• Work may be performed in a tight/confined space
• May be required to wear specialized PPE
• May work irregular, extended hours or varying shifts