PEDIATRIC GRAND ROUNDS

May 2, 2019
Achieving High-Quality Care through the Integration of Measurement, Benchmarking & Verification
Michael J. Goretsky, MD, FACS, FAAP
Professor of Surgery and Pediatrics, EVMS
Pediatric Surgery, CHKD

Objectives: Explain NSQIP (national surgical quality improvement program). Identify national quality programs pertaining to surgical care of the pediatric patient

Competencies: Medical Education; Patient Care

May 9, 2019
Global Health (Part 1)
Rupa Kapoor - Program Overview
Rebecca Furby and Dana Lauture: Haiti
Susie Samreth and Garima Sarda: India
Sara McCrate: Dominican Republic

Wrap up and Questions

Objectives: Identify challenges faced on the global health stage for children in various parts of the world.

Competencies: Medical Knowledge; Interprofessional Communication

May 16, 2019
Trauma Conference
ABCs of Pediatric Trauma Resuscitation
Jonathan Groner, MD
Professor of Surgery, Ohio State University College of Medicine
Trauma Medical Director, Nationwide Children’s Hospital
Medical Director, Center for Pediatric Trauma Research

Objectives: Diagnosis and treat traumatic brain injuries in pediatric patients. Identify communication and clinical challenges for field providers. Evaluate cases from a medical examiner’s point of view.
Execute proper wound and burn care in pediatric patients. Discuss the pediatric trauma resuscitation survey.
Recognize signs of potential abuse in the pediatric patient.

Competencies: Patient Care; Medical Knowledge

May 23, 2019
Global Health (Part 2)
Rupa Kapoor --Faculty and Alumni Initiative Introduction; Announcement of Next Year’s Global Health Scholar
Sam Vemula and Dana Reynolds: Costa Rica
Nima Sekhadia: Panama
Angee June, Amy MacKay, Malvika Kapoor, Vipin Philip: Belize

Wrap up and Questions

Objectives: Identify challenges faced on the global health stage for children in various parts of the world.

Competencies: Medical Knowledge; Interprofessional Communication
May 30, 2019

Joint OB/GYN-Peds
Updates on Fetal Intervention and Imaging
Magda Sanz Cortes, M.D., PhD.
Associate Professor, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology
Baylor College of Medicine
Fetal Surgery and Intervention

Objectives: Relate how imaging determines what fetal intervention is chosen and why.

Competencies: Medical Knowledge

ACCREDITATION
Eastern Virginia Medical School is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

CREDIT DESIGNATION
Eastern Virginia Medical School designates this live activity for a maximum of one (1.0) AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.