

Pediatric Grand Rounds

Provided by: Office of Continuing Medical Education, Eastern Virginia Medical School

Target Audience: Pediatricians and interested healthcare professionals including medical residents and students

All conferences are held 8:00 – 9:00 AM in the Brickhouse Auditorium

---

February 6, 2020	Managing Common Behavior Problems Barbara J. Howard MD Assistant Professor of Pediatrics The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine President, Total Child Health
Objectives:	Interpret behavioral problems of children within various developmental stages. Apply primary care management to problematic eating, sleeping and oppositional behavior in early childhood. Assess and address family dynamics related to childhood behavior.
Competencies:	Patient Care; Medical Knowledge

---

February 13, 2020	MD-RN Joint Grand Rounds Responding to Patient Violence and Elopement Jason R. Davis, Esq Co-Chair of the Health Care Practice Group of Kaufman & Canoles
Objectives:	Identify the guiding legal principles governing a response to patient violence & elopement. Describe protocol tips for responding to these situations and answer questions.
Competencies:	Patient Care; Practice-based Learning &amp; Improvement

---

February 20, 2020	MD-RN Joint Grand Rounds The Art of Improv in the Health Care Setting Maryanne McKibben Dana George Washington University SOM
Objectives:	Identify the philosophical principles that undergird effective improvisation in the workplace, and how these principles can help individuals and teams be more productive. Translate these principles to the specific work of medicine and providing holistic, compassionate patient care.
Competencies:	Patient Care, Interpersonal and Communication Skills

---

February 27, 2020	MD-RN Joint Grand Rounds Common Cause Analysis Sandip Godambe MD PhD, Professor of Pediatrics, EVMS/CHKD Chief Quality and Patient Safety Officer Regina Dawson, JD, BSN, RN, CPHRM Manager, Patient Safety
Objective:	Identify fundamental causes of safety events as a group. Determine how the organization can leverage learning from many seemingly disparate events. Identify localized and global conditions affecting performance.
Competencies:	Systems-Based Practice; Patient Care

---

ACCREDITATION

Eastern Virginia Medical School is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

CREDIT DESIGNATION

Eastern Virginia Medical School designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.