Who is eligible?

An eligible individual is someone who developed the onset of their disability before age 26, and:

Is entitled to Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) benefits based on blindness or disability or

Self-certifies that they have a qualifying disability diagnosis from a physician

How can I use the money?

ABLE accounts may be used at any time, for any reason to pay expenses related to maintaining health, independence and quality of life.

Basic living expenses

Health and wellness

Housing

Transportation

Education and training

Assistive technology

Financial management

Legal fees

What are the benefits?

Flexible

Easy to open and manage your account.

Tax Advantaged

Earnings grow free from federal taxes.

Virginia offers an annual state income tax deduction of up to $2,000 per contributor for contributions to an ABLEnow or ABLEAmerica account.

Doesn't Impact Benefits

ABLE funds are disregarded when determining eligibility for certain means-tested benefits.

For SSI, an account balance up to and including $100,000 is disregarded.

See able-now.com for rules, limitations and exceptions.

Account costs

ABLEnow offers some of the lowest fees in the country among ABLE programs.

- No enrollment fee
- No minimum contribution
- Account service fee of $3.25 per month
Waived if you maintain a balance of $10,000 in the ABLEnow Deposit Account
- If you choose to invest, there are asset-based fees between 0.37% and 0.40%, depending on investment selections

See the Account Fee Schedule for complete details.

ABLE Updates

Recent legislation provides enhancements and flexibility for ABLE account owners.

- Annual contribution limit increased to $15,000 per year
- ABLE Financial Planning Act allows 529 transfers
- ABLE to Work Act incentivizes ABLE beneficiaries to work
- Potential to take advantage of the Savers' Tax Credit
